Female founders and their teams who regularly use GenAI claim to gain a full hour of additional productivity per day. If you'd like a 25-hour day, you won't want to miss this interactive breakout session that will help you harness the power of AI to support growth without burning you out. Whether you are a newbie to AI who knows you need to get started, or a power user who can't live without it, you'll benefit from tips and strategies on how to maximize its power.

FROM CERTIFIED TO CELEBRATED: HOW TO TURN YOUR WBE STATUS INTO STRATEGIC VISIBILITY

Your certification proves you qualify. Your brand is what makes buyers remember you. Most WBEs have strong capabilities but unclear messaging; they sound like everyone else, show up inconsistently, and leave buyers guessing what makes them different. This session breaks down how to build a brand with clear differentiation, consistent messaging, and strategic visibility so the right opportunities find you. You'll leave with a framework to define what makes you different and a plan to show up with clarity and confidence.

Stephanie Scott-Bradshaw, CEO and Communicator-in-Chief, First and Last PR
